Words from the Editor.

nigel.holdsworth@yahoo.com

All Change - as we have moved into the Easter season.

A fresh selection of hymns and music to go with them. More opportunities to spend time in the garden (sunshine permitting) and more concerts to attend - there is a bumper crop of posters included on the following pages in this edition. With concerts comes meeting up with friends in the audience - both old and new...and more organists to go and hear perform - both familiar and new.

Don't just rely on the details here within the PipeLine, have a regular visit to the website of organrecitals.com and see what else is happening around and about.

For organists at least, Easter marks the end of quite a long haul and many of us will be taking a break and handing over the console to a deputy for a week or two. It gives the usual congregation the chance to hear someone else play as well. I find that I return from a holiday fully re-charged and ready to enjoy the music of the new season.

Many readers of the Pipeline will know that I am a keen exponent of instruments by T C Lewis / Lewis & Co and I was delighted to find a Lewis built around the turn of the twentieth century, in the historic church of Monk Fryston. For some reason, I had never visited that church before and the message was obvious...Go out and about, Get out more and find something interesting - practically on your doorstep!

When you get home - let me know what you have found - include a photo if possible (jpeg is an ideal format) for inclusion in a future edition of the PipeLine.

See you at an Organ Concert soon!

YDOA Last Event.

Last Saturday - 5th April 2025, YDOA members assembled at the historic church dedicated to All Saints in Sherburn-in-Elmet for a presentation by Gordon Stewart on J.S.Bach: the man, the music and the numbers.

Examples of complete movements from the Unaccompanied Cello Suites were expertly performed by 'cellist Clare Herriott

Refreshments, which included some excellent scones and cakes were enjoyed following the presentation.

A most enjoyable and instructive afternoon all round!

Photographs are kindly supplied by Robin Peach, who has kindly included a QR code, which will take you to the album of photos taken during the afternoon.

Is this technological arrangement a 'first' for the YDOA?

Hidden Leeds

With all the motorways around West Yorkshire, Leeds is easily by-passed; but being an industrial city with a fascinating history - particularly from the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries, there are plenty of interesting instruments both large and small just waiting to be discovered.

A list of venues, timings and full details for rendez-vous will be circulated by email in the normal way, by the weekend before.

Making an early start - at 11.00, come along and discover some hidden gems!

St Austin's Catholic Church Wakefield, part of the Diocese of Leeds is looking to appoint an organist from Easter 2025

BACKGROUND

St Austin's Church dates from 1828 making it one of the oldest churches in the Diocese. The actual Parish is St Austin and The English Martyrs which consists of two churches, both in Wakefield.

St Austin's has a long musical tradition and a choir has been in service for nearly two hundred years. The Director of Music has been in post for 19 years and his predecessor for 42 years.

The current organ is a digital 3 manual Ahlborn Galanti although there is a strong desire to install a suitable pipe organ when funds allow.

The organist would be required to accompany the choir at the solemn Sunday Mass where the repertoire generally includes a chant or polyphonic Mass plus motets. In addition, there is a rehearsal to accompany the choir on Sunday evenings. A further commitment to services on Holy Days, Holy Week and major feasts is also required. There are also extra services and concerts for which the organist would be eligible to receive additional fees. An ability to accompany plainchant would be desirable though is not essential.

St Austin's Choir has an excellent reputation and is widely regarded as one of the finest liturgical choirs outside of a Cathedral setting. They have enjoyed tours to Rome (singing in 3 of the 4 major basilicas), Paris, including a recital in Notre Dame, Austria including Salzburg Cathedral and most recently Northern Spain, including Mass and recital in Avila cathedral, the home of Tomas de Luis Victoria.

Whilst the majority of the repertoire is European Renaissance polyphony, more modern music is enjoyed along with new compositions by the prizewinning Composer in Residence.

JOB SPECIFICATION

An annual fee of £6000 applies, paid monthly on receipt of invoice. This covers:

- 40 weeks per annum Sunday Solemn Mass (currently 11.00am)
- Sunday evening rehearsal (currently 7:30pm to 9:30pm)
- Holy Week Services Maundy Thursday evening
- Good Friday
- Easter Saturday Vigil
- Major Feast Days (where not celebrated on Sundays) Epiphany
- Presentation of The Lord
- Ash Wednesday
- The Ascension of The Lord
- St Peter & St Paul
- The Assumption of The Blessed Virgin Mary
- All Saints
- All Souls
- Christmas Eve Midnight Mass (usually celebrated at 11pm)
- Mass of Christmas Day

Additional responsibilities may include (depending on candidate):

- Assist the Director of Music and Parish Priest in planning music for all services.
- Organise replacement/deputy organists on occasion
- Arrange for servicing and maintenance of the organ
- Deputise for the Director of Music in directing the choir in occasional practices and services when the Director of Music is away.

Additional fees will be paid as below:

- Weddings £150
- Funerals £100
- Extra services or rehearsals £65
- Concerts/Recitals/Tours by negotiation.

A student in full time education will be considered as an organ scholar.

The list of responsibilities could be tailored to the needs of the student and choir with an appropriate adjustment to salary.

The successful applicant will require an enhanced DBS.

How to apply

For an informal chat or visit please contact the director of music, Patrick Ganley, by email: dofm@staustinschoir.com

Press Release.

Dr. Carol Williams writes:

Dr. Carol has composed a new organ work titled "Hero's Journey", set to premiere this August in the USA at St. Andrews in Hyannisport, Cape Cod.

She will also perform concerts in Ocean Grove, NJ, and Harrisburg, PA.

The interview series On the Bench series (available on YouTube) continues to expand, featuring new artists who share their captivating life stories. The collection now includes 65 episodes."

Press Release.

The Diary of Celebrated Australian Organist & Choir Leader Elizabeth Campbell, revisiting England in 1933-34

"In Search of Nightingales: The Diary of Elizabeth Campbell" Review by Graeme Kay (Choir & Organ Magazine & BBC Radio 3)

"Independent of means, but prudent and socially-ambitious, nature-loving Elizabeth filled her days with outings, but her daily pursuit of London's musical, liturgical and social experiences makes her portrait of divided Depression-era Britain compelling reading."

In recent days I have been in contact with the Royal College of Music library, whose current Librarian was unaware of Elizabeth Campbell's diary in their vast collection. Having now plucked it off a shelf, it is being enjoyed by staff members, and hopefully inspiring students for years to come. In 1927 Elizabeth was the RCM's star pupil for organ-playing and conducting, and later became the most famous female organist in Australia.

I have also spoken to the Editor of The Lady Organist requesting permission to use her excellent 2015 review of the diary. The review has links to the diary on The Great British Bookshop and also a YouTube video produced at the time of publishing in 2010. The Great British Bookshop are the retail arm of our UK printer, who now has local printing arrangements in Australia and Canada.
